

"Removing the Middleman is a book that Muslims and non-Muslims alike will find of interest. Bypassing a reliance on traditional religious scholars (ulama), Rashed Hasan affirms the right of Muslims to go straight to the text of the Quran, tackling the issue of Islamic reform head on, reading and reinterpreting the text of the Quran within the context of the contemporary world" – Dr. John Esposito, Georgetown University

DEC 2: 12 -2PM AUTHOR TALK

Free to Choose – Volume 2 of Removing the Middleman Series

Rashed Hasan will discuss his second book, Volume 2: Free to Choose of the series Removing the Middleman - an understanding of the Qur'an, the last book of Revelation in the context of 21st Century.

This book has been endorsed by Dr. John Esposito, the Founding Director of The Center for Christian Muslim Understanding at Georgetown University, Washington, DC.

All proceeds from the book sale will go to MyLLife.org, a 501c(3) non-profit based in Alexandria, VA

See you on Dec 2nd at Beatley Library – 5005 Duke Street, Alexandria, VA 22304 (Large Meeting Room): 12-2pm Please Register at www.mylife.org ***

BEATLEY CENTRAL
LIBRARY – 5005
DUKE STREET,
ALEXANDRIA, VA
22304

LARGE MEETING ROOM

REFRESHMENTS

ASK QUESTIONS

GET TO KNOW EACH OTHER AND OUR COMMON FAITH

Sponsored by

MyLLife.Org

Visit website to Register